

Natalie
WELCH

Speaking Topics

Engaging, Educational, Empowering
Key Note Presentation Speaker

www.nataliewelch.com.au

Connects the dots ... with warmth, humour and empathy

"Natalie is passionate about what she does – helping purpose-driven businesses achieve great things – but more importantly, she's superb at doing it.

Natalie is the type of person who unites everyone, gets people on the same page and helps you achieve more than you thought possible. "

Natalie has more than 25 years of experience in the not-for-profit, learning, and people development industry. She has a deep understanding of leadership and the potential of people and purpose. Her approach is genuinely generous, as she emphasises the human aspect of work, providing leaders and teams with practical ideas for real change. Her focus is on expanding their practice and adapting to the changes they desire.

Natalie is an engaging keynote speaker and workshop facilitator who creates an immersive experience of collaborative learning for her audience. With her dynamic energy and heartfelt approach, she empowers people to make positive changes.

Natalie is the founder of a practice that focuses on learning, coaching, and leadership. She collaborates with a team of people and culture experts to guide and support leaders, teams, and organisations throughout Australia.

Add a practical skilling workshop to increase the impact Natalie can have at your conference. filled with how-to plays and tools to implement within your teams.

SPEAKING TOPICS

Be Powerful and Purposeful

In this high-impact keynote, Natalie will provide compelling insights to connect participants with their sense of personal power to reflect on when they are in their power, when they are out of their power, or perhaps giving their power away too readily.

Participants will reflect on their inner leadership practices to have a greater presence, influence, purpose and impact on themselves and others.

Art of Coaching for Leaders

Effective leaders utilise coaching as a valuable skill to enhance their impact on their team. By asking insightful questions, they can inspire changes in both mindset and behavior. In her presentation, Natalie offers guidance to leaders on identifying opportunities for coaching and understanding when it's time to switch gears. She also highlights the importance of avoiding the tendency to give advice and how to reset if it happens. This talk equips leaders with the tools to skillfully enhance their coaching practice within their team.

Power of Influence and Collaboration

As a leader, it's not unusual to experience isolation, loneliness, or become stuck in tired habits. But Natalie guides you to break free from these limitations by embracing the power of collaboration, expanding your sphere of influence, trustworthiness and support networks to achieve greater results and empowerment.

Natalie WELCH

0417 239 105

www.nataliewelch.com.au